

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. In the interest of the public, the airing
of the anti-Kerry
program without equal time to air a
pro-Kerry program
indicates bias and
is not considered
news, but electioneering for his political opponent. Since airing the pro-Kerry
information by the Sinclair Broadcast
seems unlikely, they should pull the
anti-Kerry message,
or face the consequences of the People of this country demand they not receive renewal
of their licenses.

Thank you.